

2016—2017 DOT Youth Snow Program Registration Form

Dear Baltimore City Youth and Parents/Legal Guardians:

Thank you for your interest in the Department of Transportation's (DOT) Youth Snow Program! DOT places Baltimore City residents between the ages of 14 and 21 in strategic locations through the City to shovel the Right of Ways for City residents specified on days when City schools are closed due to inclement weather. (Youth must be 14 on or before October 31, 2016 to be eligible to participate this winter.) In 2016-2017 the snow season will run from November 15, 2016 through April 15, 2017. Selected participants will be paid for their services per snow event. Please note that completing this registration form does not guarantee your acceptance into this program. Please read the registration guidelines carefully before submitting your form.

You will need to provide the following eligibility documents at your certification appointment:

- Birth certificate: Name must match what is on your pre-registration form and your Social Security card.
- Social Security card: Name and number must match what is on your pre-registration form, and name must match what is on your birth certificate.
